Statement of Subject – Employee and Retiree Benefits
Main Points: Guest speaker Susan Pihl, Director of Benefits at UC Irvine, provided an overview of benefits extended to employees by Human Resources and addressed modifications to and enhancements of special services offered.
- Benefits Services representatives and their consultation areas were reviewed. As a reminder, in 2005 non-occupational disability management transitioned from Benefits Services and merged with Worker’s Compensation.
  - Glenn Rodriguez – Health Care Facilitator: provides assistance and counseling to active employees and their dependents, as well as retirees, in all matters concerning medical, dental and vision benefits.
  - Kwame White – Benefits Analyst: manages the Unemployment Insurance (UI) Program, assists with open enrollment, coordinates benefits education training, and provides support toward web management.
  - Jeri Frederick – Director of the Center for Emeriti and Retirees: facilitates programs and services to maintain cohesion among retirees and the UC Irvine community.
  - Kellie Jones, Lynda Poirier, Melody McCulloch – Insurance and Retirement Consultants: liaisons with Department Benefits Representatives in assigned coordinating points.
- Extensions from Benefits Services were discussed.
Fidelity Retirement Services: provides training and information sessions on retirement planning and management. Jeff Crowley (jeffrey.crowley@fmr.com) of Fidelity provides free information services to departments and has available materials on the UC Retirement Savings Program and Fidelity financial resources.

Cascade Centers: administers UC Irvine’s Employee Assistance Program. Services available to employees include 30-day unlimited financial coaching, mental health assessments and referrals, and a variety of concierge services (three counts of service per need, which may include vacation planning, babysitting services, elderly care management services, etc.). Assistance is available twenty-four hours a day / seven days a week and may be arranged by calling the following toll-free number (800) 433-2320.

Members of SchoolsFirst Federal Credit Union may receive financial investment advising and utilize the BALANCE financial fitness program, which offers finance improvement services.

CONEXIS: administers employee Flexible Spending Account which include Dependent Care FSA (DepCare) and Health FSA. The organization recently acknowledged the UC community to be more large-scale and intricate than initially recognized. CONEXIS pledged to Office of the President its goal to improve customer service and enhance customer tools and resources.

UC Irvine’s Office of Planning and Budget: Julie Lance, Principal Analyst, provides extended support to UC Irvine’s senior management group, including life insurance and benefit options.

Department Benefits Representative Training Series: training sessions to local department benefits liaisons designed to expand knowledge first received in representative orientation.

- Updates regarding the proposed modifications to post-retirement benefits will be publicly disseminated to employees as they are received. Modifications will effect employees as follows:
  - Effective July 2011, three and a half percent (3½ %) will be paid by the employee and seven percent (7%) will be paid by the employer.
  - Effective July 2012, five percent (5%) will be paid by the employee and ten percent (10%) will be paid by the employer.
  - Pension tiers are under review and will be discussed at the Board of Regents’ November 2010 meeting, upon which formal recommendations will be concluded. The new pension tier will be applicable to employees hired after July 2013.

- Open enrollment for benefits and insurance coverage will begin Monday, October 25, 2010 and end on Tuesday, November 23, 2010. Dependents will be covered until age twenty-six, which includes the birthday month of his or her twenty-sixth year. Enrollment in ARAG legal services will be available in 2010.

- Over-the-counter prescriptions will no longer be eligible as a flexible spending account item.

- Pihl encouraged utilization of the Human Resources website (http://www.hr.uci.edu), the UC At Your Service website (http://atyourservice.ucop.edu/index.html) and its Total Compensation Calculator (http://atyourservice.ucop.edu/applications/total_comp/index.php), as resources of recruitment and post-employment planning.
